

2019 Annual farmers inspired Convention
REQUEST FOR PRESENTATION APPLICATION FORM
Applications due: May 30, 2018

The 2019 Annual farmers inspired Convention is heading to Indianapolis for a six day/six night event comprising of farm tours, educational sessions, workshops and a business exchange. It is a full immersion convention that brings farm direct marketers and agritourism operators from all over the continent together for learning and networking.

We are seeking volunteer presenters for our one hour concurrent sessions that will take place during our educational programming days of the convention. We welcome both association members and non-member professionals to submit presentation proposals. We are looking for concurrent sessions on a range of topics including but not limited to the following:

- Hands-on learning sessions
- Employee recruitment, screening and training
- Retail
- Marketing
- Financial best practices
- Risk management (could include safety, emergency preparedness, theft prevention...etc.)
- Events and other on-farm activities
- Basics for new farm market or agritourism start ups
